PROFILE

Founder and creative professional with 20+ years across visual communication, cultural production and business operations. I have run companies, managed contracts and budgets, coordinated people across parallel commitments, and supported creative work from idea to delivery. The through-line is production sensitivity, operational control and careful support for the people doing the work.

Program coordination · event production · contracts & deliverables · budget tracking · stakeholder relations · community support

All

Swedish hospitals covered during the last 3 years

I bring a practice-led background in Athens creative production together with twelve years of complex operational leadership in Stockholm. My role has been to keep people, schedules, budgets and institutions aligned so ambitious work can happen without the practical details getting in the way.

Project coordination at scale

Twelve years scheduling 140+ physicians across parallel hospital assignments: matching people, timelines and institutional requirements, and re-planning calmly when any of them changed.

Reliable delivery

25+ public procurement contracts won and administered personally, with consultant agreements, invoicing, cash-flow monitoring, deliverable tracking and ISO 9001/14001 compliance.

Creative production in Athens

Thirteen years in Athens design and production, from branding and print to photography direction and runway material for Milan Fashion Week. I understand the care, precision and trust creative collaboration requires.

Collaborator care

People doing demanding work need clear agreements, timely answers and problems solved before they grow. That was my daily responsibility for over a decade, in Greek, English and Swedish.

RESEARCH-LED COORDINATION

Agent X · UX case study

A structured research and design project moving from interviews to personas, an emotional journey map, annotated wireframes and usability testing. Included because it shows how I document needs, translate complexity into a clear structure, and support decision-making through evidence.

Why it matters here: artistic residency programs also depend on listening, interpreting needs, documenting clearly and turning ambiguity into a plan people can act on.

8 interviews · 2 personas · 3 usability sessions · research → validated concept

EXPERIENCE

● Operations & coordination · Stockholm · 2011 →

Founder & CEO · Konduko AB

2012–2025

Founded and ran a specialist healthcare staffing company serving Swedish public healthcare. Won public procurement contracts independently and managed contract administration, consultant agreements, schedules across parallel assignments, budgeting, invoicing, cash-flow monitoring, physician recruitment, vetting, and day-to-day client and consultant relations. The framework agreements won in the last three years alone carried a combined value above 1.5 billion SEK. Twelve years of keeping complex commitments, people, money and deadlines in balance.
